ITINERARY DETAIL

Day 1 — Day 1: Bangkok Arrival (-)

Warmly welcome you on arrival at Bangkok Suvarnabhumi International Airport. We will pick you up with a comfortable vehicle to the center of Bangkok to check-in your hotel, then take your time to have a rest after a long flight.

Day 2 — Day 2: Bangkok Full Day City Tour

Today, we will take the whole day to explore Bangkok – the city of golden temples.

The first destination is the Grand Palace. This huge architecture complex is over 2 sq. kilometers, including 3 main sites: Royal Palace, Royal Office and pagodas (Wat) built in 1770s. Nowadays, the Grand Palace is no longer home of Thailand Royal, most of national significant events takes place there.

Wat Phra Kaew is the most out-standing architecture in complex, built in 1785 when King Rama I moved the capital to Bangkok. The pagoda is famous not only for its beauty of unique Thailand Buddhism architecture but also for the sacred jade Buddha statue.

Nearby Grand Palace is Wat Pho – the oldest and biggest pagoda in Bangkok with more than 1000 Buddha statues and the huge one sit-back Buddha in gold. This pagoda is also famous for being a birthplace of traditional Thai massage, since there is a traditional medicine school established in 1982, educating the arts of Thai massage.

After having lunch by your own account, we visit the last destination of the day: Wat Traimit. This pagoda is famous for its unique and historic beauty, and also for the huge golden Buddha statue. Thai people believe that the statue represents for prosperity and purity, as well as strength and power.

We will board on a boat to pay a visit along the Chao Phraya River, watching the life of local people close by.

On route, we stop at Wat Arun, known as the most beautiful pagoda in Bangkok not only for its location on the Chao Phraya's riverbank but also for the different architecture from other pagodas. The pagoda was decorated with glass pieces and Chinese ceramic, in a complicated style.

Return to the hotel and you are free to explore Bangkok by night.

Day 3 — Day 3: Bangkok - Railway Market - Floating Market (B)

Early in the morning, after having breakfast, we pay a visit to Meaklong Railway Market - a local market has grown up along the rail tracks. When a train pulls in or out of the station, the sellers quickly clear their stalls, and set them up again when the train has passed.

We continue our trip to explore a temple hidden within the roots of banyan tree - Wat Bang Kung, which has been buried for years in thick foliage; step through trailing vines into its intimate shrine, and pay your respects to a gleaming golden Buddha statue.

The temple reminds a war between Burmese and Siamese in the 18th century on a landscape that serves the battleground. Today, the temple and nearby area is preserved as a memorial to those heroic warriors of the past.

Located 50 km from Bangkok, Amphawa Floating Market apparently already present since the mid-seventeenth century. It has become such a magnet for Thai weekenders that food stalls have grown from the riverbanks and stretched far into the surrounding streets.

Here, you can buy plenty of unique and cheap traditional Thai snacks, which is such an ideal gift for your family/friends.

When the night falls, you will get the motorboat and cruise along the canal as you see the villagers spend their daily life by the river. And if you are lucky enough, you will get to see fireflies light up the night like stars in cloudless sky.

We get on the transport to back to hotel in Bangkok.

Day 4 — Day 4: Bangkok - Hua Hin (B)

After breakfast we drive to Hua Hin, famous for its traditional fishing port, seafood restaurants and beautiful sandy beach. It is ideal for families and for all those who want to escape the hustle and bustle of big cities.

After lunch we continue to visit the Klai Kangwon Palace. Composed of three Spanish-style villas, facing the sea, this summer palace was built in 1926 north of Hua Hin by King Rama VI.

Then we will drive to the hotel in Hua Hin and spend the rest of the day on your own.

Day 5 — Day 5: Hua Hin - Prachuap Khiri Khan - Bang Saphan (B)

Breakfast will be served at the hotel then we will transfer to Prachuap Khiri Khan, a fishing port located in the heart of an exceptional bay. Beautiful beaches are nearby.

Pay a visit to the Khao Chong Krachok (or the Mount of Mirror): you will see a very venerated monastery at the top of Mt. 395 steps lead to a small pagoda populated by a troop of monkey players. You will then go to Ao Manao (Bay of Lemon). Renowned for its calm, this beach is the most pleasant to relax and bathe. The calm of this place is replaced by many animations on weekends.

Lunch is on your own during the visit, then transfer to Bang Saphan. Paradise for nature lovers and tranquility, Bang Saphan develops at its own pace. Its main attraction is the large sandy beach lined with coconut palms and bungalows.
