ITINERARY DETAIL

Day 1 — Day 1: Bangkok arrival

Upon arrival pick up and transfer you to your hotel overnight.

Bangkok has been Thailand's dominant city since the eighteenth century. Established as the capital in 1767 after the fall of the ancient city of Ayutthaya, Bangkok is located on one of southeastern Asia's most important rivers, the Chao Phraya. In the 1980s and 1990s, Bangkok underwent rapid modernization, growing to approximately ten million people, making this the only major city in a country of villages and small towns. Bangkok's ancient palaces and Buddhist temples contrast with high rises and traffic jams.

Day 2 — Day 2: Bangkok city tour (B)

Today, we will take the whole day to explore Bangkok - the city of golden temples.

The first destination is the Grand Palace. This huge architecture complex is over 2 sq. kilometers, including 3 main sites: Royal Palace, Royal Office and pagodas (Wat) built in the 1770s. Nowadays, the Grand Palace is no longer home of Thailand Royal, most of the national significant events take place there. Wat Phra Kaew is the most out-standing architecture in the complex, built in 1785 when King Rama I moved the capital to Bangkok. The pagoda is famous not only for its beauty of unique Thailand Buddhism architecture but also for the sacred jade Buddha statue.

Nearby the Grand Palace is Wat Pho - the oldest and biggest pagoda in Bangkok with more than 1000 Buddha statues and the huge one sit-back Buddha in gold. This pagoda is also famous for being a birthplace of traditional Thai massage, since there is a traditional medicine school established in 1982, educating the arts of Thai massage.

We continue to visit the Wat Traimit. This pagoda is famous for its unique and historic beauty, and also for the huge golden Buddha statue. Thai people believe that the statue represents prosperity and purity, as well as strength and power.

After having lunch, we will board a boat to pay a visit along the Chao Phraya River, watching the life of local people close by. On route, we stop at Wat Arun, known as the most beautiful pagoda in Bangkok not only for its location on the Chao Phraya's River bank but also for the different architecture from other pagodas. The pagoda was decorated with glass pieces and Chinese ceramic, in a complicated style.

Return to the hotel and you are free to explore Bangkok by night.

Day 3 — Day 3: Bangkok -Damnoen Saduak Floating market- Hua Hin (B)

Early in the morning, after having breakfast, we pay a visit to Damnoen Saduak Floating market. Arriving at the market, you can see the vendors who wear traditional farmer dresses and hats bring local Thai foods, fruits and products to sell on rowing boats. You should not miss the opportunity to experience sitting and giving them a try on one of these boats on the canal. You are free to explore around the market, take photos/videos or even hire a paddling boat to breathe the once-in-a-lifetime atmosphere here.

We then continue a 2-hour driving journey to Hua Hin.

En route, we passed through Camel Republic nearby. It is not only a zoo but also an amusement park - A fun place for adults and children alike. You can enjoy feeding and interacting with animals such as camels, alpacas, birds and bunnies. The park offers a variety of entertainment including fun and thrill rides, mini racing on a track and a small indoor amusement park for kids.

Day 4 — Day 4: Hua Hin city (B)

After breakfast, we came to Hua Hin railway station. It is now one of the most beautiful train stations in Thailand. The main building of the station is wooden, once a palace of the Thai Royal Family and was rebuilt in 1968. With its unique oriental and western architecture, it is an amazing attraction.

With the beautiful forest of Kaeng Krachan National Park, Pa-La-U waterfall is one of Thailand's most beautiful natural wonders, and also one of Hua Hin's biggest attractions. Go through the rainforest to the waterfall, you will have free time there, play in the clear water or take beautiful photos.

We can't miss Wat Huay Mongkol, an unique architectural structure with distinct styles. In Particular, there is the largest statue of Luang Phor Thuad in the world. Luang Phor Thuad is a famous monk in southern Thailand who is able to perform miracles.

Visit to ancient village Plearnwan, considered as a living museum, vividly reproducing the images and lifestyles of a traditional Thai village. Here you will easily see the small houses inside that sparkle with colorful electric lights, stained-up advertisements, simple, non-sophisticated but really attractive.

Our next destination is The Venezia Hua Hin. This is the new themed shopping village in Hua Hin. However, it quickly attracted a lot of visitors because of the new, unusual scenery, a Western Venetian, located in the middle of Thailand. This shopping village became more and more famous in Thai tourist maps because it not only caused curiosity, but also brought a relaxed and poetic feeling to visitors.

This morning, begin your tour of the city where it all began for colonial Singapore at Raffles Landing Site. This is where Sir Stamford Raffles is said to have first landed in 1819 in search of a new trading port for the British East India Company. Continue with a stroll through the Colonial District which forms the very heart of Singapore. See the Old Houses of Parliament, Victoria's Theatre, originally built as City Hall in 1862 and across the Old Supreme Court House. Then discover the contrasts of Singapore with tours of Chinatown and Little India, a cultural insight. Chinatown has evolved since 1821 and was the area that many Chinese immigrants headed to upon arriving in the British colony. Finally, make a stop at the National Orchid Gardens, located in the Singapore Botanic Gardens and home to the largest orchid exhibit in the world. Spot Singapore's national flower, the Vanda Miss Joaquim, before returning to your hotel and rest of the afternoon at your own leisure.

Day 9 — Day 9: Singapore- Garden Bay (B)

English speaking guide

Breakfast at the hotel. The Gardens by the Bay is a nature park spanning 101 hectares in the Central Region of Singapore, adjacent to the Marina Reservoir. The Cloud Forest at Gardens by the Bay looks like a giant greenhouse. Architecturally, it looks pretty cool. But it's still fairly unassuming compared to what you will find inside. Next to the Flower Dome is one you can give a miss. The Flower Dome's coolness is significantly dwarfed by the Cloud Forest with its giant waterfall, skywalks and literal tropical rainforest. The Flower Dome is another huge greenhouse, this time filled with thousands of flowers and tropical palms scattered throughout. Afternoon, at own leisure.
