ITINERARY DETAIL

Day 1 — Maeklong Train Market & Amphawa Floating Market Tour

11:30: Pick up the tour participants from various hotels.

12:30: Depart from Bangkok and drive southwest to the Samut Songkram province for visiting Maeklong Train Market

14:30: Arrive at the Mae Klong Train Market (locally called as Talad Rom Hoop). You will see a train passing through the busy marketplace and watch the market vendors chaotically pulling aside their tables of vegetables, local produce and meats out of the way. It is a unique and breathing-taking scene.

15:30: Continue further to the famous Amphawa Floating Market (open between 2pm and 8pm), where you can see hundreds of paddled boat vendors selling traditional Thai food and seafood by the canal.

On the way, there is a stopover at an elephant village where you can buy optional activities such as elephant ride, snake farm, tiger zoo, animal shows and etc.

18:30: In the evening after sunset, get on the motor boat and cruise along the river and canal. You will see the villagers spending their daily life by the river. If you are lucky, you will get to see fireflies light up the night like stars in the cloudless sky.

19:00: Depart from the Amphawa Floating Market and heads for Bangkok

20:45: Arrive at Bangkok and transfer back to your hotel.

Note : Operates only on Friday, Saturday and Sunday
